We will arrange on-site/online individual meetings with all registered participants and once again we will organize tailor-made curated meetings with a number of business angels, handpicked for each project in cooperation with EAVE and Eurodoc. Selected teams will have the unique opportunity to receive advice on co-production, finance, marketing or distribution, according to the primary needs of their project.

WEMW SCOUTING DAYS

All applicants will have the possibility to virtually meet with the WEMW team on October 15, 22 and 29, to discuss projects, share ideas or doubts or get more info about the co-production forum and the submission process.
