"It'll make you think twice about going on an exotic getaway"

— Kevin Foxe, Executive Producer
The Blair Witch Project
