Synopsis

Season one of Dream It To Be It, has 21 amazing kids who are excited to share their unique stories, interests and what they dream of for their futures.

Every episode, our host Tai meets a wonderful participant and learns about their dreams. After their meet up Tai plans an adventure designed to give our participants a variety of experiences related to their interests and passions. These adventures take Tai and our participants all over, giving them exclusive access to exciting locations while engaging in challenges and activities that provide direct experiences from experts.

Dream It To Be It, is kid-led, authentic and full of feel-good fun. Reaffirming our young participants of all abilities that if you can dream it, you can be it!

DREAM IT TO BE IT encourages kids of all abilities to explore their potential, find their joy, try new things, and know that their dreams and passions are possible.

If you DREAM IT, you can BE IT.

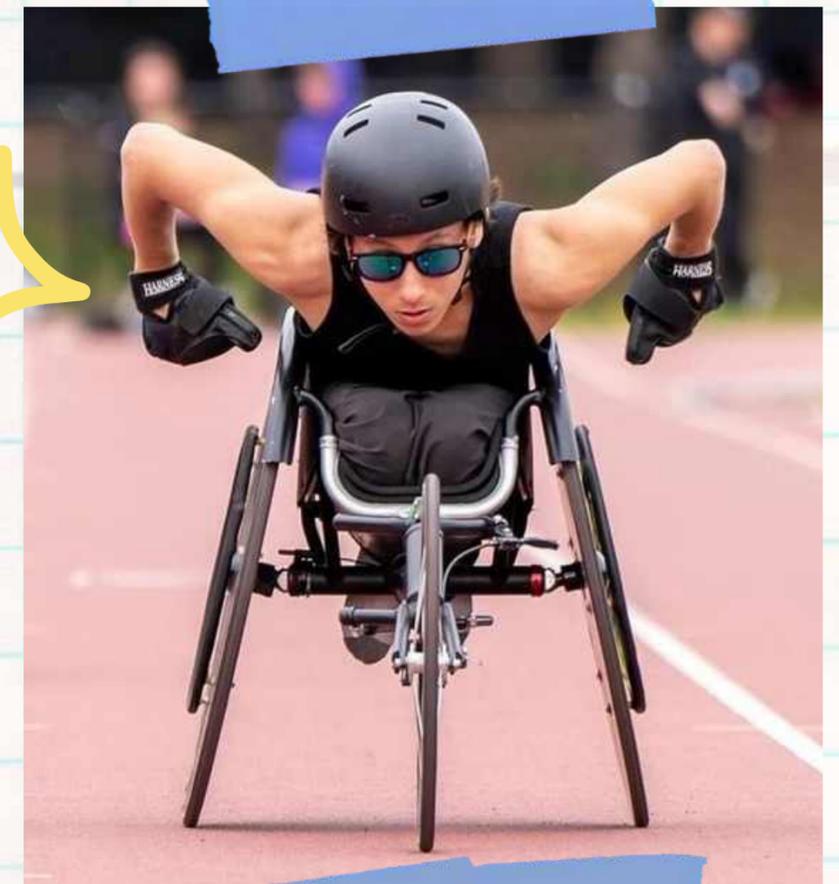

Dream It To Be It

was nominated for 3 Canadian Screen Awards and 2 Prix Jeunesse prizes in 2024

Who is Tai Young?

Tai Young is a young wheelchair racer, actor, artist, disabilities activist and an all-around delightful human being. Currently a student at TMU for Media Production, he aims to help rewrite the realities and expectations many people with disabilities face. Tai hopes his achievements will inspire kids to follow their dreams and be able to find joy in who they are.

“Hosting Dream It To Be It was one of the most fun experiences I’ve ever had. I worked with so many incredible kids and had just as much fun as they did on every adventure throughout the series.” – Tai Young

Why did you want to make this show?

After meeting Tai Young on the set of The Fabulous Show with Fay and Fluffy where he appeared as a guest, Lopii Productions immediately knew he would make a perfect kid's tv host. Tai is an ambassador with Holland Bloorview Rehabilitation Hospital who created the Dear Everybody Campaign, a movement to end stigma and eliminate bias against people with disabilities. Dream It To Be It was developed in partnership with HBV and the Dear Everybody campaign to create a children's show with authentic representation and integration of disabilities.
